

Meeting Room Policy Laurens County Library

The Laurens County Library System offers use of its meeting rooms to the citizens, groups, and businesses of Laurens County, for non-profit purposes. Laurens County Library programs will receive priority in scheduling, and other meetings may be cancelled, rescheduled or relocated, with notice, if in conflict with the operation of the library. Government departments and agencies of Laurens County will also receive priority status.

Nonprofit organizations and groups will be granted permission for free use of the meeting room on a first-come, first-served basis, upon application by an adult Laurens County citizen with a library card in good standing and a valid ID. Reservations will be maintained on a calendar year basis, with applications taken in December.

For profit businesses and organizations in Laurens County are welcome to use the meeting rooms for training or development purposes. A rental fee of $50.00 will be charged if used for informational meetings for the public, or for any profit making purpose.

All users will abide by the following regulations:

- 1) All meetings must be open to the public free of charge. Library staff reserves the right to monitor any meeting.
- 2) The meeting room applicant accepts full responsibility for proper conduct of those attending the meeting and for any damage to Library property by those attending.
